

BEYOND THE DRIP LINE: Ecology for Green Design Professionals

1

Ecological design principles that connect the built environment to the natural environment. Exploring the “green” in green design. Presentations by regional design professionals with LEED project experience.

A

B

2

DATE: Wednesday, October 28th
TIME: 1:00 – 5:00 p.m.
PLACE: Bernheim Arboretum and Research Forest (Meet at Visitor Center)
COST: $30 per participant
Prior registration required.
Call 502-955-8512 to register or bernheim.org for more information

Bernheim
ARBORETUM AND RESEARCH FOREST

IN COOPERATION WITH:
The Kentucky Chapter of the United States
Green Building Council.

TOPICS/PRESENTERS:

Connecting Buildings to Nature – Bernheim Visitor Center, LEED Platinum

Claude Stephens – Education Director, Bernheim

American Life and Accident Insurance Company Green Roof Project

Jason Kruse – Project Manager, Turner Construction Company

Troy Huffman – Project Manager, American Roofing and Metal Company

Rain Gardens, Water Collection and Site Considerations – Regional sustainability projects

Chad Whitaker – Landscape Architect - LEED GA, BTM Engineering

Living Walls and Urban Landscape Considerations – The Green Building

Tracey Williams – Owner/Designer, Greensleeves Design

Stick around after the program for the October USGBC Green Scene cocktail hour at the Visitor Center and green roof research plots, 5:30-7:30 p.m. Visit www.usgbckentucky.org for details.